

PETITION TO ESTABLISH VISITATION RIGHTS

PRO SE WORKSHOP

This packet contains information needed to file a Petition to Establish Visitation rights when you have not legally been given visitation rights by the Court for your minor child/children.

Before you being completing the appropriate forms to take legal action, you must review the court file that concerns you and the child (for example the one that named you as the father of the child and/or ordered you to pay child support). You will find this file in the clerk's office of the courthouse that heard your case. You should review EVERYTHING in this file and make copies of all the orders and judgments.

You should have one of the following (1) Final Decree of Divorce, (2) A Judgment Determining Support, or (3) Judgment approving Stipulated Agreement of Support and Admission of Paternity. Attach a copy to your petition.

Now that you are familiar with your court file, you are ready to file for legal action with the court.

MAKE SURE TO MAKE COPIES OF THE BLANK FORMS ENCLOSED IN THIS PACKET IN CASE YOU MAKE A MISTAKE.

PETITION TO ESTABLISH VISITATION RIGHTS

IMPORTANT NOTICES

1. Do not take any of these papers to the Department of Human Services. The department cannot and will not help you complete these forms or deliver them to the custodial parent.
2. You must be on time for the court hearing. Be clean and neatly dressed (church attire is appropriate). Also, do not chew gum or bring your cell phone to court.
3. Be respectful to the judge. Be sure to say “yes sir”, “yes ma’am”, or “your honor” when you speak to the judge. Remember to act appropriately at all times, even if other parties in the case do not. This helps the judge see you as a responsible adult that should be allowed time with your child(ren).
4. This packet will refer to the custodial parent repeatedly throughout. The custodial parent is the person with who the child(ren) reside.
5. FEES: Upon filing your papers with the court clerk you will be charged a filing fee. This amount ranges between $100 and $150 as of December 2017 and depends on the court you file in. You will also be charged a service to process fee by the Sheriff’s office. This fee is usually $35 and must be paid to have the sheriff serve the court papers to the custodial parent. You cannot serve these papers yourself. These fees must be paid when you file your papers with the court. If you choose to have a private process server serve these papers for you, you have to find one yourself and they must return proof of delivery to the chancery court clerk to file with your petition. Private process servers usually charge a minimum of $45 to serve papers.

Please contact the court clerk and sheriff to determine the appropriate methods of payment and exact prices.

If you cannot afford to pay these fees, the clerk may waive them under very specific circumstances. To try to have these fees waived, you must sign the pauper’s oath, found on page 15, stating that you cannot afford to pay such fees. You may sign this sworn statement before the clerk at the courthouse when you go to file your paperwork there.
